ORDER

The matter was heard for all these days. However, during course of hearing, sincere efforts were made to persuade the parties to come to some amicable settlement as they are very close neighbours.

However, the appellant Gautam Chand and respondent Vijay Raj who are present in person are present during last days also agree that they have resolved their dispute, and the litigation may be decided in the manner that the impugned judgment and decree of the learned trial court be maintained, and the present appeal and cross objection both may be dismissed as withdrawn.

Accordingly the appeal and cross-objections are both dismissed as withdrawn. The decree of the learned trial court is thus maintained. Parties agree that they will bear their own costs.
